

DEPARTMENT P – Poultry, Rabbits, & Pigeons

Samantha Spell, Chairman (336-979-9084)

Jason Spell and Penny Money, Co-Chairmen

Exhibits will be received on September 9 from 4:00 pm - 7:00 pm

1. All birds and rabbits are entered at the risk of the owners. The fair shall not be responsible for loss, injury, theft, damage by lightning, wind, fire or any other agency, but will exercise all possible vigilance in the care of the exhibits at the exhibit barn.
2. The management will reserve the right to coop one or more birds or rabbits of the same variety and belonging to the same person together if absolutely necessary. In no case will two male birds be placed in the same coop.
3. Premiums will be paid only to worthy specimens. No sick birds or rabbits will be accepted.
4. No one will be allowed to handle birds or rabbits on display, except owners, or officials of the show, without permission of the directors.
5. Exhibits must be picked up on Saturday, September 15 from 12:00 until 4 pm
6. All poultry must be presented for examination before being placed in the show. Only birds in apparent good health will be accepted. Those developing signs of infectious or communicable diseases during the show will be placed in isolation and shall not be removed for the purpose of exhibition.
7. Due to the availability of a State Inspector, Poultry and Rabbits will be accepted on Monday, September 9 from 4-8 pm Inspection fee will be paid by Stokes County Fair.
8. Since we do not have open competition for rabbits, we are allowing any junior between the ages of 8 and 18 years, residence of Stokes County and active in a youth organization to exhibit his animals at no charge.
9. All birds and rabbits will be fed and cared for by the Stokes County Fair.
